"I wrote The Third Eye to wake people up, to remind them why God put them here. There's more to life than money," said Stewart. "My whole message to the world is about God and good and about choice, about spirituality prevailing over 'technocracy'." Stewart doesn't seem the least bit concerned about matching the success of her work and confidently declares, "A master will keep creating." Sophia knows her work and knows who she is and says soon the world will know, in her words, "I'm the real thing like coca-cola."
